New Contours in Industrial Relations: secondary analysis of case studies conducted since the 1960s

Schedule

1st session

Wednesday 23 April 2014 / 16.30-18.30 / Room UR2 Germanistik second floor

16.30-16.40, Introduction: Nicole Mayer-Ahuja (University of Hamburg / Sociological Research Institute at the University of Göttingen)

16.40-17.20, Peter Birke, Sociological Research Institute at the University of Göttingen: Form “Autonomy” to “Subjectivation of Work”

17.20-18.15, Wiebke Wiede (University of Trier): "Good Work" Without Work: The Perspective of the Unemployed

18.15-18.30, Short presentation of the papers “Good work as Everyday Practice” (Bluhm) and Olsen (Identity Formation for Post-Tayloristic Work Organisations” (Olsen).

2nd session

Thursday 24 April 2014 / 10.00-13.00 / Room 2 Politische Wissenschaften KomZ, details t.b.a.

10.00-10.45, Felix Bluhm, Sociological Research Institute at the University of Göttingen: Lack of Self-Confidence and Wildcat Strikes – Secondary Analysis of a Shipyard Study of the late 1970s

10.45-11.30, Ole Johnny Olsen, Department of Sociology, University of Bergen, Norway: Identity Formation for Post-Tayloristic Work Organizations in Norwegian Industry

12.00-12.30, Introduction to General Discussion: Lutz Raphael (University of Trier)

12.30-13.00, General Discussion